Agenda Item 2: Minutes from January 26, 2009 Meeting

The minutes from January 26, 2009 were reviewed.

MOTION: Joe Spracale motioned to approve the minutes.

SECOND: Rebecca Bond seconded the motion.

COMMITTEE CONSENSUS: Minutes were approved.

Agenda Item 3 – Tempe Police Department Data

Brandon Banks, Tempe Police Department is ill and was unable to attend this meeting. This topic will be tabled until the March meeting.

Agenda Item 4 – Communities for Kids Update

Lynette Stonefeld, Communities in Schools (CIS) provided the following update:

- 1) The Don't Wait To Educate series will be held at Wood Elementary School in English and at Aguilar Elementary School in Spanish. The series will also be provided at Compadre High School to teen parents. The curriculum is being redesigned to specifically meet the needs of these teen parents.
- 2) The "First Things First" RFP should be out any time. The regional partnership, which includes Tempe, wants to partner with East Valley agencies to specifically provide parent education and home visitations for one year to newborns of Tempe families identified as high risk. They are also looking to partner with East Valley Resource Center to provide specific topic workshops, such as parents in prison.

Agenda Item 5 – Magellan Prevention Grant Update

Kim Bauman, City of Tempe, Lynette Stonefeld Communities in Schools, and Joe Spracale, Tempe Impact Education Foundation provided the following update:

- 1) The City of Tempe just had their Magellan audit and it was successful.
- 2) Four planning meetings have been held and information has been provided to the participants. Attendance has been strong. Members must now focus on developing a strategic plan in the remaining two sessions.
- 3) We hope to have interested planning committee members, who are not already a part of this committee, join this committee after the sixth session. The meeting time and date would likely need to be changed to better meet the needs of participants.

Agenda Item 6 – Other Grant and Program Updates

- 1) Randy Lazar, Tempe Union High School District reported the district is applying for a Safe Schools/Healthy Students Grant through the U.S. Department of Education. They are proposing a comprehensive set of services to be provided in the schools and community. These services include sustaining the school resource officers, broadening the school based counseling services, and working with parents of preschool aged children. The grant application is due in early March and if awarded the district could receive up to $1.5 million per year each year of the grant.
- 2) Kim Bauman, City of Tempe reported that the Empowering Parents and Teens workshop series will begin Thursday evening. The Juvenile Probation Department has been referring youth and parents to the program.
- 3) Rebecca Bond, Tempe Connections reported they have received a grant for an intergenerational veteran's history project, which includes funding a part time coordinator position.
- 4) Kim Bauman, City of Tempe announced Experience Corps has received a grant through the Pasqua Yaqui Indian tribe which will assist in sustaining the Experience Corps program.

- 5) Tim Cox, City of Tempe announced CARE 7 has received a Arizona Criminal Justice Commission (ACJC) grant to sustain their part-time bilingual Spanish speaking victim advocate. They will also be applying for a Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) grant to sustain their full-time English speaking victim advocate. In addition, Tim is applying to the Gila River Tribe in hopes of receiving funding to expand the number of hours the school based counselors are at the TUHSD high schools.

Agenda Item 7 – Announcements

- 1) Kim Bauman, City of Tempe announced the 2009 YouthFest Courage Awards and Tempe Top Teens Recognition Dinner will be held on April 13th at The Buttes. Invitations will be sent out next week and the dinner is $33 per person.
- 2) Joe Spracale Tempe Impact Education (TIE) Foundation announced that Lynette Stonefeld has received the first annual recognition award from TIE Foundation's Connecting Kid's Group for her outstanding efforts in our schools and community.
- 3) Lynette Stonefeld, CIS announced that a Family Resource Fair will be held this Thursday at Thew School. It is sponsored by Child Protective Services.
