

HRC Sub-committee Meeting, September 2, 2010

Present: Florence Boyle, Frank Morales, Kathy Dietz, Jay Scherotter, Ginny Belousek.

The Committee met in the Tempe Learning Center at 3:30 pm at the Tempe Public Library. The published Agenda for the meeting was not followed. Jay Schroetter introduced a Challenge Day program called, "If you really knew me", to the Committee as an alternative to the Teen Dialogues. Much discussion took place after the Committee viewed a video of the program as presented on MTV. No vote was taken at the meeting, but the Committee agreed that the program would be worth further exploration.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Ginny Belousek announced that she would be attending a meeting with the Tempe Superintendent and principals from the five Tempe high schools next week. At this meeting, Ginny will present the Teen Diversity Dialogues, including the topics and concept as developed by the Sub-Committee, to the principals and Superintendent,. She will also extend an invitation to for them to send a representative to our next Sub-Committee meeting.

[The next Sub-Committee meeting will be held during the week of the 20th of September. Time, date and location will be announced.]
