Agenda Item 1 – Call to Order

Betsy Fahlman, Panel Chair, called the meeting to order at 9:15 a.m.

Agenda Item 2 – Panel Review

- Betsy Fahlman welcomed the panel members to the meeting; the panel members and City of Tempe staff members introduced themselves and B. Fahlman explained how the panel meeting was to proceed. Additionally, B. Fahlman walked the panel members through the voting procedures, scoring and discussion and the overall process following the panelists' decision.
- Maja Aurora, Arts Coordinator, collected Conflict of Interest forms from all panelists. Fahlman confirmed that there were no conflicts of interest with any of the submissions.
- B. Fahlman explained in detail the scoring process: a silent viewing, first round voting with discussion as well as a second round of voting with discussion.
- M. Aurora showed all artist submissions in alphabetical order.
- M. Aurora showed all artist submissions a second time and voting began; discussion was held amongst the panelists.
- M. Aurora tallied all scores and calculated a natural break in the scoring that led the panelists to a third round of viewing and voting. The same process of voting and discussion took place. A natural break was found and three artists continued to the final round of voting.

- B. Fahlman announced that three artists/artist teams received high rankings from the panel members; the high-ranking artists/artist teams were discussed and their images were reviewed. All scores were tallied; the artist team of Laurie Lundquist (Willco Art and Design, Inc.) and Rebecca Ross received the highest score.
- The panel discussed and unanimously agreed to choose the artist team of Laurie Lundquist (Willco Art and Design, Inc.) and Rebecca Ross to fulfill the public art element at Daley Park.

Meeting adjourned by Betsy Fahlman at 12:45 p.m.
